ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost. ולך דמיה תהלה.

In honor of my father, R' YOSEF MORDECHAI BEN MATISYAHU HA'KOHEN A"H

To my DEAREST MOTHER, my first and greatest fan. You are the greatest chef I know. I hope to express how much you mean to me. You were always looking out for me, and you still are. You always believed in me, and you still do. You define the meaning of true motherly love. I am blessed to call you my mother. I do believe that I am where I am today because of how you raised me. I thank you for always being available for me. You instilled within me pure Emunah and you are a true Yiddishe Mamme. My love cannot adequately be expressed here, but I truly thank you.

TO MY DEAR SIBLINGS, LIBBY, MATES, CHAIM, CHEIKY, MOSHE CHESKY AND SHIFFY, THANK YOU. Each and every one of you have been loving, encouraging and supportive, always. You mean the world to me and I'm proud to serve with you in this gilgul.

TO MY BRIDER MOISHY, as I write this I realize that I am unable to express everything there is to say due to the limited pages. I have learned a great deal from you and can always count on you. You are always there to offer support, encouragement and clarity. You are the reason I made it this far, you are my voice of reason, and you are always by my side. I can always count on you, wherever, whenever or whatever. You are the one constant person in my life... You compliment, support and offer guidance in personal growth. You are always there and ready to help. Everyone who knows you can attest to this. Can I get an Amen?

MATES & CHUMIE, you were my first hero and still are. R' YONA & REBTZI, SAM & ETI, CHAIM LUNDNER, SHMULIQ & ESTI, YV PHILL, you all opened the door when no one would. I'm forever grateful to live in the same lifetime as you. I thank you for everything you did for me and I'm honored to know you.

YANKY SCHWARTZ, @picturemøcher thanks for always being there. I know there will be good photos. You always have a good harmony and a good whistle. You are a big drive in my life, pun intended. Your support and harmony make a great tune.

TO MY GREAT, HONEST AND TRUE FRIEND SUMI, who doesn't let me get away with anything, keeps me on my toes, questions and tests me. Sumi... my favorite editor... you roll.

MOISHY DEUTSCH you were there, pumped and ready, right from the start. You started this whole thing and treated it like your own. Just like you used to climb onto my shoulders when you were a kid, you have now carried me on yours.

GERSHY SCHWARGZ - you work, support, encourage, direct, record, edit, mix, sing, harmonize, hold the video camera, edit the videos and the list goes on and on and on... You are one talented guy and I'm grateful that you shared your talent with me. You have given your heart and soul to this project and you are a true friend. You always have something pleasant to say and I'm glad to see how we've grown together. I couldn't have, wouldn't have and shouldn't have done this without you. You and your wife Kayla mean the world to me.

IF YOU'RE READING THIS TODAY IT'S DUE TO ZEVI FRIED. He took a good product and turned up its volume. He is a person that everyone loves and he is the reason we were able to pull all this together. Zevi, you are a true friend who I can count on. I wish to be a friend to you as you are to me... and I bless all my friends to have a friend like you. You knew what needed to be done and took care of it before the thought even materialized. Thank you for realizing my unacknowledged dreams and making it a reality. You've helped me reach new heights and I am forever grateful. May Hashem repay you, your wife Penina, and your children, Avrumi, Viggay and Efraim for your sacrifices and generosity.

TO MY GOOD FRIEND MICHAEL: you are the reason behind the great success of this album. You didn't just gofundme, you ensured that everyone fundme. Your name brings a smile to my face. You're the first one to realize and last one to forget. I am very lucky for Mimini Michael.

TO MY FUTURE WIFE, MI YODER? Where are you hiding? Not cool. My friends are waiting... It's embarrassing.

Likvod Shabbat

Produced by: Eli Lishinsky

Co-produced by: Yagil Baras

Often, I find myself humming quietly when walking down the street, especially on Shabbos. One Shabbos, I was walking and humming this tune to myself. People were walking by and we greeted each other as we always do, especially on Shabbos. I thought it would be a great idea to record it this way. Having struggled with Shabbos in the past, I would often think of the holy Minchas Eluzur, the Munkatchter Rebbe, when he was caught on camera many years ago in Europe, begging his brothers to keep Shabbos. He was obviously speaking to people who were struggling with Yiddishkeit and keeping Shabbos, yet he called them all brothers and that inspired me greatly and still does. He made that statement a long time ago, and years later he is still speaking to millions.

הראינו ד' חסדך וישעך תתן לנו,

קומה עזרתה לנו ופדנו למען חסדך

תהלים פה:ח, מד:כז

Show us, Hashem, your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Arise! Assist us! And redeem us for the sake of your kindness!

Psalms 85:8 44:27

Just like everything in this world, this song came through Hashgachah Pratis. I used to learn with a friend of mine Chaim Adler b'Chavrusa. Once, in the middle of learning, he received an urgent call. There I was, idly playing my guitar while I was waiting, and I heard myself humming the words "Hareinu Hashem Chasdecha", and suddenly, this beautiful tune was born. I realized that what had once been impossible, studying Torah in Yerushalayim, was now actually happening. Hashem has and still does show me such incredible Chesed.

אין טראפ וואסער Ein Trop Vaaser 2.0

Music Arranger: Shloimy Salzman
Produced & Backup Vocals by: Gershy Schwarcz
Mixed by: Chaim Gottesman

I was walking home from the Shuk one Friday afternoon, humming to myself as I often do. The four lines “Ein Trop Vasser, Me’Lerent Abisel Veiter, Me’Arbet Oif Zich Veiter, Me’Gleibt Abisel Veiter”, just came into my head in song. When I shared it with family and friends, they, and especially my good friend Yanky Schwartz, encouraged me to complete the song. Sruli Lipschitz mentioned that the words “Ein Davar Haomed, Sheva Yipol Tzaddik Vekom”, might be suitable for this song. I often thought that the Pasuk, that a Tzaddik falls seven times, and gets up, can be interpreted that while one can fall without too much effort, rising or getting up is much tougher. The word Kom in Yiddish means barely, which ties in with the notion that getting up after a fall is sometimes barely manageable. Therefore, if we push a little harder, work a little more, we can triumph over everything. I found that “Sheva Yipol Tzaddik”, ties in so well with the composition.

אבי יתומים Avi Yesomim

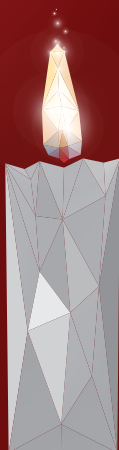

Produced by: Shlaimy Salzman & Moshe Tischler
Backup Vocals: Gershly Schwarcz
Mixed by: Chaim Gottesman

אבי יתומים ודין אלמנות אלהים במעון קדשו יהי ד' אלוֹקנו עמנו כאשר היה אם אבותינו
אל יעזבנו ואל יטשנו ואתם הדבקים בד' אלקיכם חיים כולכם היום ("ויתן לך" מוצ"ש"ק)

Father of orphans and Defender of widows, Hashem in His holy dwelling. (Psalms 68:6) May Hashem, our God, be with us as He was with our forefathers, may He not forsake us nor cast us off. I Kings 8:57 You who cling to Hashem, your God, are all alive today. (Deuteronomy 4:4)

This gem came to me on a Motzie Shabbos, a short period after my father's A"H passing. I was in my apartment in the Beth Yisroel neighborhood, in Yerushalayim. I took out my guitar and I was reciting the weekly blessing of "Veyiten Lecha". The Nusach of that particular Siddur had the following Pesukim of "Avi Yesomim" included in the paragraph titled "Omar Reb Yochanan". The tune that came to me was one filled with longing, from a son to his father. The first phrase "Avi Yesomim" expresses the emotions of one missing their parent, but it also inspired me to the thought, that the Ribbono Shel Olam has taken on the role of my Father. This also got me thinking about the next phrase "Yehee Hashem Elokeini" which is a prayer to our Father, Hashem to be with us. The third and final phrase "Ve'atem" is the conclusion of the song as well as a response from Hashem to our prayers. As I once saw in a Siddur, this gives us encouragement in our lives and it is both an inspiration and a warning. An inspiring call to the privileged to be concerned with the weak as Hashem is, and a warning not to take advantage of the defenseless, for G-D is the Father of orphans. My friend Pinchas Deutsch, a great musician and songwriter, was there during the composition. Later on he kept asking me about it, and that's the reason this song is on the album.

ונהפוך הוא Venahapoichu 2.0

Produced by: Gershly Schwarcz, Duvid Shtendig & Sruli Lipschitz
Mixed by: Chaim Gottesman

ונהפוך הוא אשר ישלטו היהודים המה בשנאייהם (אסתר ט:א)

...the situation was reversed: the Jews dominated their enemies. (Esther 9:1)

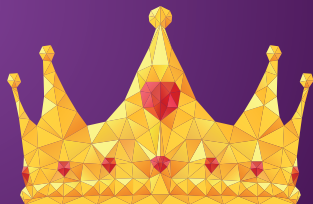

The first song I ever recorded was composed in the Dirah I shared with my good friend Y.Y. Phill, in Yerushalayim, where we would jam often. It was a few days before Purim, and I thought it would be funny to write a serious song about the happiest holiday in the Jewish calendar. So I started singing Venahapoichu as a slow song. After composing the first part, I realized that it was pretty good, so I recorded it on my phone. As I was recording it, the next part seemed to write itself. My friend and guitar Chavrusa Shmuel Lam who was with me at the time, thought it was good as did my friend Chaim Adler, who suggested that I end it with "dim, dim, dim". When I sang it to my friends in Kollel, they loved it and began singing it. So once I had the opportunity to record it in a studio, I went for it, and the rest is history.

קודשא בריך הוא Kidshu Brich He

קודשא בריך הוא אחד לעילא לא יתיב על כורסיא דיקריה
עד דאתעבידת איחי ברזא דאחד כגונא דיליה
למהוי אחד באחד והא אוקימנא רזא דה' אחד ושמו אחד

The Holy One, Blessed is He, Who is One above, does not sit on His royal Throne of Glory until [kingship below] is made over in the secret of Oneness like His, that they may be a Oneness parallel to a Oneness. Thus we have set forth the secret of Hashem is One and His name is One.

I once sat in my apartment, strumming my guitar, and I asked Hashem to share a melody with me. I opened a Siddur to the Tefillah "Kegavna" and it reminded me of the many holy Friday nights I spent in the Kollel Nekudah Tova in Yerushalayim. I often was the Baal Tefillah for Kabbolas Shabbos and was asked to sing the famous "Raza D'Shabbos", composed by Cantor Pinchik. I've often looked for meaning in the words of this prayer which has a very special place in my heart because of how the holy Zohar expresses the magical arrival of Shabbos. Needless to say, I felt very honored that Hashem gifted me with this beautiful song. Once again, I quickly called my brother Moishe to explore the song and it resulted in "Kidshu Brich He".

Everyone's waiting, wishing, praying for Mashiach
It will only happen when we all get along
Everyone's waiting for, wishing, praying for Mashiach
Let's love one Anada (another) and break out in song

This song came about through a Brachah. There is a very Choshuva Yid in Yerushalayim named Rav Mentzer, who I am close with. After my first song "Venahapoichu" became popular, I asked Rav Mentzer for a Brachah, that I should be blessed with more melodies like these, which bring Simchah to people. Rav Mentzer replied, "Compose a song about Ahavas Yisroel, and you will be Matzliach." He had already asked me to write lyrics about Ahavas Yisroel to the famous Kaliver tune "Galus Galus". Between my writing and his editing, we had ישיבת ישראל ווי גרויס ביטור, שכינה הקדושה ווי גרויס ביטור, וואלט די שנת חיים בטל געווארן, וואלטן מיר שוין לאנג אויסגעלייזט געווארן ווייט ביטור, וואלט די שנת חיים בטל געווארן, וואלטן מיר שוין לאנג אויסגעלייזט געווארן. Not long after that, the song "VeUhavtu" came to me. It was late on a Motzie Shabbos and I couldn't fall asleep. I started thinking of that Kaliver tune in my head with a full ensemble and an amazing guitar solo above it all. The song ended, and in my mind I started singing VeUhavtu, 98% as we know it now. I repeated it (singing it to myself) and recorded it on my phone. I couldn't believe it, or rather I was blown away by how this gift was given to me. The lyrics came to me a very short time later. When it was time to record the lyrics I felt it was important to have it in Yiddish, English and Hebrew, to spread this important message, "Love One Anada, and break out in song"

בדר שדמ מודד בה מודדין לן וכן לענין הטובה (סוטה 7:1 - 1)

The way that a person judges others is the same way he is judged and so it is when someone judges others favorably he is judged.

I wrote this song while learning the words “Bemide Sheodom Moded” in Mishnay-os “Mesechta Sota”. It means that the way a person judges another, is the way he himself is judged. This also reminded me of what my father A”H shared with me. The Baal Shem Tov asks a question about the expression

Din v’Cheshbon, (Judgment and calculation). Why do we say Din before Cheshbon? Shouldn’t it be written the other way around? The Baal Shem Tov answers that the Neshamah will be judged according to the way a person judges others.
When you are Dan, or judge another with kindness, you will be judged and given Cheshbon with kindness.

This song veers back and forth, looking at oneself from opposite perspectives. It’s important for us to realize our own self-worth, while at the same time striving to be better, for if we are dishonest with ourselves, it is only ourselves we are fooling.
There is a Pasuk in Tehillim: “Im Esak Shomayim Shom Otoh”; if I should ascend to Heaven, You are there with me; “Veatziah Sheol Hinecka”; and if I should descend into Gehinnom You are right here with me. If one thinks of oneself as a righteous man, Hashem is actually far from him. However, if one thinks of oneself as lowly and is humble, Hashem is actually there with him. The Baal Shem Tov says that a Rasha who acknowledges he is a Rasha, is better off than a person who believes he is a Tzaddik. My friends Lazer and his wife Raizy Weiss together with Yanky Schwartz helped me get clarification on this thought, and complete the song.

When I think I am smart
It shows how foolish I am
When I think I have achieved
It shows how far I still need to go
When I think I am strong
It shows how weak I am
When I think I am honorable
It shows how lowly I am

Oh how foolish I am
Oh how far I am
Oh how weak I am
Oh how lowly I am

When I think I am foolish
It shows how smart I am
When I think I have a far way to go
It shows how much I have achieved
When I think I am weak
It shows how strong I am
When I think I am lowly
It shows how honorable I am
Oh how smart I am
Oh how I have achieved
Oh how strong I am
Oh how honorable I am

Be real and honest with yourself
Don't just look good and right
The truth needs to be sought out
Don't be afraid to look bad
Even if it hurts

Oh how foolish I am
Oh how smart I am
Oh how far I am
Oh how I have achieved
Oh how weak I am
Oh how strong I am
Oh how lowly I am
Oh how honorable I am

ומי יודע אם לעת כזאת הגעת למלכות

And who knows if it is not for just such a time that you reached this royal position. (Esther 4:14)

אפשר איז דעס וואס די גייסט יעצט אריבער די סיבה וואס די ביסט דא
איך בין זיכער אז דעס וואס איך גיי יעצט אריבער איז די סיבה וואס איך בין דא

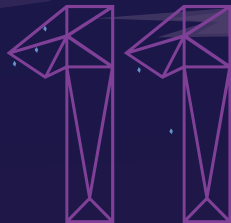

Maybe whatever you are going through now is the reason that you are here
I'm sure that whatever I am going through now is the reason that I am here

This has an interesting backstory. It was Purim time in Yerushalayim. I was asked to come to sing in a Yeshivah where my nephew was learning. As the Rosh Yeshivah was speaking, I was strumming my guitar to the Posuk "Mi Yodea", and I had the first half of the song. On the way home from the gathering, my friend Duvid Deutsch and I were discussing the meaning of these words and how deep they are. That discussion about the meaning of the words, completed and elevated the whole song.

יומם יצוה ה' חסדו, ובליילה שירה עמי תפלה לא-ל חיי (תהלים מב:ט)

In the day [when the day of redemption dawns (Rashi)] Hashem will command His loving-kindness: even by night His resting place is with me [even in the dark night of galus], Hashem is with me. His song is with me. Psalms 42:9

This song is another one of the many examples of Hashgacha Pratis I experienced on my musical journey. One evening, I was fiddling around with the guitar, idly playing some chords. One riff led to another and before I knew it, I had another little tune. My friends Yanky Rosenberg and Nussy Levy thought it sounded good. There was a Sefer Tehillim nearby, so I quickly searched for lyrics to match the tune; I found it in the Pasuk in תהלים מב:ט. The next day on my way to Uman, I met my friend and jamming buddy Eli J. Sitting in a corner in the terminal, we played it, and it fit really well. The song continued on with us to Uman, where it was picked up by the Chevra. By the time I arrived to Israel, I was greeted by the sound of the song being sung widely. Shortly after that, we released the now famous video filmed in Shuk Machane Yehudah, which had been, and still is, a great source of inspiration for me.
